

Media Clippings
Month: Aug/Sep 2008

Media Name: The Straits Times

Media Type: Print

Publication Date: 29 Aug 2008

THE STRAITS TIMES

life! events

science.08

SCI-FI MOVIE FESTIVAL AND FORUMS

Learn about climate change by catching the documentary The 11th Hour by movie star Leonardo DiCaprio on Sunday at VivoCity. It will be followed by a public forum where you can ask scientists about the documentary. You can also catch three science-fiction movies tomorrow and Sunday. By the Agency for Science, Technology and Research and Singapore Science Centre.
Where: GV VivoCity, VivoCity MRT: HarbourFront & GV Plaza, Plaza Singapura, Orchard Road MRT: Dhoby Ghaut
When: Tomorrow: 4pm at VivoCity (Journey To The Centre Of The Earth 3D, a sci-fi story based on Jules Verne's novel about an adventure trip to the heart of the earth), Tomorrow: 4pm (Wall-E, a movie about robots at Plaza Singapura) & Sun: 2.30pm (11th Hour at VivoCity) followed by the public forum, 6.45pm (Speed Racer, a motor racing movie at VivoCity) Admission: $9.50 a film Tel: 6425-2591
Info: A robots-themed exhibition is on in the atrium of Plaza Singapura till Sept 7. Log on to www.gv.com.sg

NATIONAL JUNIOR ROBOTICS COMPETITION

Expect challenges, fun and excitement with the theme Saving Global Environment at this premier robotics competition for students from Primary 3 to tertiary level. By the Agency for Science, Technology and Research.
Where: Singapore Science Centre, Annexe Building, Science Centre Road MRT: Jurong East When: Tue - Sept 6: 8.30am - 6pm Admission: Free Tel: 6425-2799